The Puget Sound Photographic Collectors Society is a non-profit organization dedicated to the collecting and preservation of Historical Photographica.

Founded in 1979, the group has grown steadily to it's present 100 members. The membership has a wide diversity of interests and expertise. However, we all have the same goal; to enjoy this fascinating and rewarding hobby and help those who would like to learn more about it. To this end: we have monthly meetings, a newsletter, one of the best Annual Camera Shows in the nation, and a very congenial group of members.

If you are at all interested in Vintage Cameras, Prints, or related paraphernalia; come join the club.

WARNING! You may become hopelessly addicted to this hobby, and never be the same again. But you will have a lot of fun, and meet some nice people.

The club meets on the Third Thursday of each month at the Auburn Public Library, 808 9th. SE, Auburn, Washington. (No meetings in July or August) Our Annual Camera Show is presented each Spring, at Kent, Washington. The club dues are $10.00 per year.

If this sounds like something you would like to get involved in , complete the following form, and forward along with $10.00 to the club treasurer. If you would like more information, call one of the officers listed below. You are welcome to attend any of our meetings. And, we even have refreshments. Thank you.

Dedicated to the Collecting and Preservation of Historical Photographica

Founded in 1979, The Puget Sound Photographic Collectors Society is a non-profit organization of more than 130 members. The members have a wide diversity of interests and expertise. However, we are all devoted to the hobby of learning about our photographic past; including the collecting and preserving of antique and classic cameras, – images, – lenses, – accessories, – photographic literature and advertising. One of the main goals of the club is to help and inform others who would like to know more about their photographic heritage.

The club meets on the third Thursday of each month (7:30 to 10:00 p.m.) at the Des Moines Masonic Temple, 2208 S. 223rd (take Midway exit 149 west off I-5, go to first stoplight west of Pacific Hwy S., turn right on 24th, then left on 223rd). There is no meeting in July or August. Club Dues are $10.00 per year.

Members are provided with a concise monthly newsletter, – meaningful discounts on selected photographic books, – our monthly meeting and photographic swap/sale and the opportunity to take part in our annual Camera Sale Swap and Show held each spring at Kent, Washington. This show has grown to the third largest one-day show in the United States.

If this sounds like a hobby in which you would like to be involved, complete the form below and forward, along with $10.00, to the Club Treasurer. Warning! You may become hopelessly addicted to this hobby and never be the same again...but, you will have an interesting time and meet some nice people!

If you would like more information, please call one of the club officers or newsletter editor listed below. You are welcome to attend any of our meetings. (We even have refreshments.)
